Message from the Chairman

PTT Global Chemical Public Company Limited operates its business responsibly, transparently, accountably, fairly, ethically and with due regard to all of its stakeholders by adhering to the principles of good corporate governance. The Company recognizes that its adherence to the principles of good corporate governance will contribute to the operational and management efficiency of the Company and a company under GC. The Company also bolsters its credibility and fosters sustainable growth, not only for the Company itself but also for the society and the nation as a whole in order to achieve its vision “To Be a Leading Chemical Company for Better Living.”

In order to accomplish such goal, the Board of Directors has integrated the Corporate Governance Policy into the Company’s Business Operations Policy and has made the Corporate Governance and Business Code of Conduct Handbook. This handbook has been distributed throughout the Company since its establishment in order for directors, executives and employees to adhere to code of conduct and all policies when performing their duties.

To express intention to develop and improve our good corporate governance to be rated “Excellence” in accordance with international standard, the Company has reviewed and revised the handbook so as to keep them up-to-date, and to keep them abreast of any changes. This handbook must also be in line with business strategies and corporate governance principles, both domestically and internationally. This handbook has been comprehensively communicated to all Directors, Executives and Employees, who have acknowledged and understood it entirely, and are expected to stringently implement the handbook as a guideline for executing their duties. They are also required to inform individuals involved in GC Group’s businesses, namely trading partners, customers and joint-operators, both local and overseas, of our ethical business strategies in order for all concerned parties to understand and comply with these important practices.

(Mr. Piyasvasti Amranand)

Chairman

PTT Global Chemical Public Company Limited

Good Corporate Governance Policy

The Board of Directors of PTT Global Chemical Public Company Limited aims to promote operational efficiency, good corporate governance and excellent management among the Company and its subsidiaries. This is to ensure that the GC Group's businesses are conducted responsibly, ethically, fairly, transparently and accountably, with a clear focus on the creation of utmost benefits for the shareholders and stakeholders, towards mutual trust and sustainable growth.

To this end, the Board of Directors has established the good corporate governance policy for all Directors, Executives and Employees of GC Group to observe in their discharge of duties as follows:

- (1) The Board of Directors shall observe the international guidelines and consistently improve on the good corporate governance in accordance with these international standards in matters relating to consideration of the rights of shareholders, the equitable treatment of shareholders, the responsibilities to stakeholders, the disclosure of information and transparency, and the responsibilities of the Board of Directors.
- (2) The Board of Directors, Executives and all Employees shall be determined in their observance of the core of the good corporate governance principles which involves Creation of long-term value, Responsibility, Equitable Treatment, Accountability, Transparency and Ethics (C R E A T E). Additionally, they must ensure strict compliance with the laws and relevant regulations in all countries in which the Company invests.

- (3) The Board of Directors shall arrange for an administrative structure with fair relationship between the Board of Directors, the Executives and the Shareholders. They shall play a vital role in the determination of visions, strategies, policies and key plans. They shall ensure that a performance monitoring and evaluation system is in place, that risks are efficiently managed, that they are independent, and that they are responsible for their discharge of duties in accordance with the good corporate governance principle.

Directors and Executives shall serve as role models where good morals and compliance to the GC Group's Good Corporate Governance Policy and Business Code of Conduct are concerned. They shall promote the culture of good corporate governance, uphold their responsibilities to stakeholders and ensure that human rights, consumer rights and labor rights are taken into consideration in the conduct of business. Furthermore, they shall arrange for the implementation of auditing, monitoring, evaluation and review systems in order to ensure that the good corporate governance policy is fully and sustainably observed by all personnel of GC Group.

Good Corporate Governance Principle

Corporate Governance is a system which provides for structures and procedures concerning relationships among the Board of Directors, the Executives, the Employees, and the Shareholders. It promotes competitiveness, leads to sustainable growth of an organization and creates added value for the Shareholders in the long run, with proper consideration of other Stakeholders.

Develop a framework of the responsibility of the Board of Directors and Executives to Stakeholders, as well as create an obligation for the management to exercise their authority within the prescribed scope.

Good Corporate Governance Structure

PTT Global Chemical Public Company Limited

1. Board of Directors

The Board of Directors is considered the heart of Good Corporate Governance. The law has prescribed that the authority and the duty of operating the Company's business are those of the Board of Directors. The Board is in turn required to observe the Company's legal requirements, articles of association, and objectives as well as the resolutions of the Annual General Meeting.

1.1 Composition, Qualifications and Appointment of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors comprises of qualified individuals from various fields whose expertise, experience and capability are beneficial to the Company. They are individuals with leadership, vision and appropriate free will to make decisions for the utmost benefit of the Company and the shareholders in general. They dedicate time and effort to the discharge of duties as per their responsibility. The composition, qualifications and appointment of the Board are as follows:

- (1) The Board of Directors comprises a minimum of 5 and a maximum of 15 Directors and more than half of the Board of Directors must be Independent Directors.
- (2) Director must not be older than 70 years of age, regardless of gender ethnicity, nationality, color, race or religion.
- (3) A minimum of half of all Directors must reside in the Royal Kingdom of Thailand.
- (4) The Chairman of the Board of Directors should not be the Chief Executive Officer and not to be the Chairman or a Member of the Sub-Committees in order to ensure the total independence of the latter.

- (5) Directors are qualified individuals from various fields whose qualifications align with the nature of the Company's business strategy. The structure of the Board should be comprised of individuals who possess different experiences, professional skills and expertise in order to apply their collective knowledge and capability to benefit the operation of the Company. These fields include engineering, energy, technology, management, accounting and law.
 - (6) Directors must have the qualifications and must not have any disqualifications as prescribed by the laws on Public Limited Companies Act. They must not illustrate any trait which suggests that they are not worthy of the authority to manage a business which has the general public as shareholders as per the announcements of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).
 - (7) Directors must understand their responsibility and the nature of the business of the Company.
 - (8) Directors must have undergone sufficient development of knowledge and capability concerning the discharge of their duties.
 - (9) Appointment of Directors needs to be transparent and visible and involve the review process of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee and the Board of Directors. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee screens with care the names of suitable candidates for the directorial positions and provides the Annual General Meeting with sufficient background information for the appointment of Directors by the Annual General Meeting in accordance with the Company's articles of association. Appointment of Directors to replace those who retire prematurely is carried out by the Board of Directors.
 - (10) Background information and service information of all Directors must be disclosed in the Annual Information Disclosure Form (Form 56-1), the Annual Report (Form 56-2) - according to the Capital Market Supervisory Board (CSMB), the website of the Company, and notify the Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET) and SEC (Form 35-E1), as well as at every instance of a change of Directors.

- (11) The roles and the duties of the Chairman, Directors, Sub-Committees, President & Chief Executive Officer are clearly and distinctively defined.
 - (12) Newly appointed Directors are briefed on crucial information benefiting their discharge of duties as Directors within three months from the time of appointment.

1.2 Term of the Board of Directors

- (1) Appointment and retirement from office of Directors are in accordance with the stipulation of the Company's articles of association. Directors serve a term of three years at each time and one-third of Directors shall vacate in proportion at each Annual General Meeting in accordance with the Public Limited Company Act.
- (2) Sub Committee Members serve a term of three years each time.
- (3) The Board of Directors appreciates that Directors must be capable of discharging their duties efficiently. Therefore, a limit is imposed on the number of companies a Director can serve. The Company's Directors should serve in a directorial position for no more than 5 listed companies in the Stock Exchange of Thailand.

1.3 Roles, Duties and Responsibilities of the Board of Directors

In order for the Company to gain strength where good corporate governance is concerned and to ensure utmost efficiency of and benefit to the Company, the Board of Directors is responsible for proactive roles and duties, as well as the determination of direction and supervision as follows:

- (1) Discharge their duties and supervise the operation of the Company to ensure strict compliance with laws, objectives, articles of association, and resolutions of the Annual General Meeting while adhering to the "Code of Best Practice for Directors of Listed Company" principles as issued by the Stock Exchange of Thailand.
- (2) Dedicate time to and recognize the significance of the visions, missions, directions, and strategies of the Company. Every Director is required to attend no less than 75 percent of Board Meetings that are scheduled in advance at the beginning of the fiscal year. However, this requirement does not extend to any board meetings that are scheduled later in the year. Directors must also express their opinions fully and seek information which could be beneficial for establishing company direction.

- (3) Review and approve key strategies and policies, as well as the financial objectives and operational plans of the Company. Encourage innovation and use of technology and innovation in business operations. Supervise and monitor the management, on an annual basis, to encourage compliance with the established operational plans in accordance with the direction and the strategies of the organization. This is to ensure that the management is capable of efficiently delivering results from the established visions, directions, and strategies, as well as being able to quickly adapt to changing circumstances.
- (4) Establish a corporate governance and business code of conduct policy which provides for preferred practices of Directors, Executives and all Employees including Contract Staff. This policy should focus on the awareness of responsibility to one's duties. Complete understanding and strict observance of this policy must be required alongside the Company's articles of association in order to ensure fairness to all stakeholders.
- (5) Determine the power to approve matters outside the scope of the designated authorities assigned to the President & Chief Executive Officer, as specified in the Company's Articles of Association. Such matters comprise the approval of budgets, investments, and project operations of the Company and its subsidiaries. They also include entering into important agreements and appointing new Directors to replace those resigning during the year and to serve on Sub-Committees. The Board of Directors is also to determine the authorized Directors, set the date for the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders and declare the interim dividend payment.
- (6) Implement a credible accounting system, financial reporting and audit. Provide for a procedure with which the suitability of internal control and audit systems can be efficiently evaluated.

- (7) Review possible major risks and establish a comprehensive risk management guideline. Ensure that the Executives have the efficient risk management systems or procedures, seek potential business opportunities arising from such risks and implement sufficient and efficient internal controls.
 - (8) Manage and resolve potential Conflicts of Interests and Related Transactions by reviewing significant transactions in order to ensure utmost benefit to the shareholders and stakeholders.
 - (9) Arrange for appropriate channels of communication with each group of shareholders. Supervise disclosure of information in order to ensure correctness, coherence, transparency and credibility of the highest standards.
 - (10) Regularly evaluate one's own performance and discharge of duties, as well as those of the Chief Executive Officer.
 - (11) Arrange for an appropriate system or mechanism for the determination of compensation for the Executives of the Company which corresponds with their performance in order to create short-term and long-term motivation.
 - (12) Lead and be the role model of a performing and ethical individual in accordance with the Company's corporate governance policy.
 - (13) Arrange for the evaluation of compliance with the good corporate governance and business code of conduct policy of the Company at least once a year.
 - (14) Provide a fair and transparent nomination system for individuals to assume Key Executive positions. The positions of top-level Executives, from Executive Vice President to Chief Executive Officer, will be appointed by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.
 - (15) Notify the Company of the connected transactions of oneself and affiliated entities in the management of the Company or a Subsidiary.
 - (16) All Directors are required to attend every Board of Directors meeting and Annual General Meeting. In the event where they are otherwise engaged, Directors must report that to the Chairman of the Board of Directors.
 - (17) Directors must value the conduct of business which is responsible to the society and environment, and which contributes to the sustainability of Thailand. This is first done by improving the quality of life of people in communities surrounding our own plants in order that communities and plants may co-exist in the most sustainable manner possible.

- (18) Encourage and support the Company to implement any form of the anti-bribery and anti-corruption activities to ensure sustainable and growth development.

1.4 Roles and Responsibilities of the Chairman of the Board

- (1) Support the operation of the management but have no involvement in the Company's routine administration.
- (2) Supervise the operation of the Board to ensure its effectiveness and independence from the management.
- (3) Determine, together with the President & Chief Executive Officer, the meeting agenda as per the Board's duties and responsibilities.
- (4) Serve as an effective Chairman of the Board's meetings and the Shareholders' meetings.
- (5) Encourage all Directors to partake in the meetings.
- (6) Play a vital role in encouraging Directors' compliance with the scope of duties and responsibilities required of the Board of Directors, laws, and the Good Corporate Governance and Business Code of Conduct principles of the Company; Directors must also discharge their duties with responsibility to shareholders and any stakeholders concerned.

1.5 Board of Directors Meetings and Acquisition of Crucial Information

One of the key duties of Directors is the participation in Board of Directors meetings where decisions are made to determine the direction and the supervision of the Company. Board of Directors meetings are conducted as follows:

- (1) The Company should schedule meetings in advance and deliver meeting documents to the Directors approximately 7 days prior to the meeting in order that they will have sufficient time to study, review and make decisions of the matters of the meeting.

- (2) Directors should dedicate time and the effort to operation of the Company. They should be ready to attend meetings regularly. In addition, at least half of the Board of Directors must be present to constitute a quorum. In the event that a Director is unable to attend a meeting that has been scheduled in advance at the beginning of the fiscal year due to emergent and unavoidable situation, the Director in question may ask the Chairman that he / she would like to attend the meeting through electronic media. The Director in question is required to stringently comply with relevant company regulations and laws regarding electronic meeting.
 - (3) Three consecutive absences from meetings without a justifiable cause will be interpreted as the Director's wish not to continue serving in this capacity. In the case a Director is unable to participate in a meeting, a notice of absence must be submitted to the Chairman of the Board of Directors in writing.
 - (4) The Chairman of the Board of Directors is the person to approve meeting agendas through discussion with the President & Chief Executive Officer. The President & Chief Executive Officer should consider the requests of Directors who wish to incorporate important matters as agendas for the next meeting as well.
 - (5) The Chairman of the Board of Directors must ensure that the Board allocates sufficient time to the Executives for their presentation of information and for the Board to discuss important matters.
 - (6) Directors who may be involved or who may have connected transaction in any agenda must refrain from voting or opining on such agenda or excuse from the meeting.
 - (7) Directors who are not Executives or Independent Directors may convene in meetings by themselves as necessary to discuss management issues of interest without participation of the management. The outcome of such meetings should be communicated to the management as well.
 - (8) Executives should participate in the Board of Directors meetings in order to clarify matters in their capacity as Executives directly involved with the issues at hand.

- (9) The Board of Directors may request documents, information, consultation and services pertaining to the operation of the Company from Executives to support each meeting. They may seek independent opinions from third party consultants, if deemed necessary, at the cost of the Company.
 - (10) The Board of Directors should be provided with documents and crucial information as regular updates of operational progress.
 - (11) The Board of Directors meeting minutes must indicate clearly the outcome of the meeting and the opinions of the Board of Directors for future reference.
 - (12) At a Board of Directors meeting, at least two-third of the total members of the Board must be in attendance. At the time of passing a resolution, no less than two-third of the total members of the Board must be present. However, if the quorum is not present as prescribed, it is then at the Chairman's discretion whether to proceed with the meeting.

2. Independent Directors

Independent Directors are a key component of good corporate governance. They serve to ensure that decisions made by the Board of Directors have taken into account the benefit of all shareholders and not only a certain group of shareholders.

- (1) The Board of Directors must comprise of Independent Directors of more than half the number of all Directors. Independent Directors are qualified and competent individuals with independence as per the announcement of Capital Market Supervisory Board. Further, the Board of Directors has prescribed a more stringent shareholding requirement at 0.5%, compared to the SEC requirement at 1% ("Definition of Independent Director Qualification" is defined in the Appendix, Page 92).
- (2) Independent Directors can serve up to 3 consecutive terms or a combined total of no more than 9 years. (such terms commence on the 2014 AGM)
- (3) Independent Directors must be able to freely opine at meetings. They must attend these meetings regularly and have sufficient access to financial and other business information in order to offer their independent opinions, protect

- the interests of relevant parties, and prevent Conflict of Interests between the Company and Executives, Directors, Major Shareholders or Other Companies with the same group of Directors, Executives or Major Shareholders.
- (4) Independent Directors need to confirm their independence at the time of appointment and annually after that in the annual report. The Company must be notified of any change in this regard.
 - (5) The Independent Directors Charter has been prescribed in writing (Appendix, Page 95).

3. Sub-Committees

Four Sub-Committees are established by the Board of Directors to help ensure thorough and efficient operation in accordance with the good corporate governance principles. Each of these Sub-Committees is assigned to review a specific subject-matter and provide the Board of Directors with opinions and suggestions. Charters have been prescribed in writing for these Sub-Committees (Appendix, Page 98). These Sub-Committee must report the outcome of their operation in the Annual Report. The structure of Sub-Committees are as below:

3.1 Audit Committee

The Audit Committee is comprised of at least three Independent Directors with at least one of them having accounting / financial knowledge. Their qualifications and scope of work need to comply with the announcement of the Capital Market Supervisory Board in order that they may be capable of ensuring that the Company discloses credible financial reports; employs sufficient and efficient internal control and risk management; selects an auditor who is independent; and fully reviews practices and discloses transactions with possible Conflict of Interests.

3.2 Nomination and Remuneration Committee

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee is comprised of at least three Directors and more than half being Independent Directors. The Chairman of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee must be an Independent Director.

The Committee has the duty to select individuals worthy of nomination as new Directors in a systematic and transparent manner. The Committee nominates candidates by considering their experience, profession, skill matrix and diversity in fields of expertise necessary to the nature of the Company's business strategy. This is to achieve a balance of different career fields and for the utmost benefits of the Company. The list of nominees may be selected from the Directors' Pool from trusted organizations, which will be presented to the Board's meetings and / or the Shareholders' meetings for approval.

3.3 Corporate Governance Committee

The Corporate Governance Committee is comprised of at least three Directors and more than half being Independent Directors. The Chairman of the Corporate Governance Committee must be an Independent Director. This Committee establishes guidelines and policies concerning business code of conduct, ethics, and prescribe policies / practices regarding social and environmental responsibility in accordance with the good corporate governance system. The Committee is also to supervise and monitor the progress of operations concerning the Company's sustainable development and presents them to the Board of Directors and the management for announcement as the standard and preferred practice of the organization.

3.4 Risk Management Committee

The Risk Management Committee is comprised of at least three Directors with at least one of them being an Independent Director. This Committee appropriately and efficiently establishes policies and makes suggestions concerning the management of risks associated with the business conduct of the Company. They ensure that systems or procedures are in place to manage risks and suitably mitigate impacts on the business of the Company. Further, the Risk Management Committee follows up on and evaluates the outcome of practices in accordance with the risk management framework in order to ensure that risk management efforts are adequate and appropriate.

4. Executives

4.1 Chief Executive Officer

The Company's articles of association require that the Board of Directors nominate and appoints one Director as the top Executive and the Secretary to the Board of Directors. This position is to be called Chief Executive Officer. The Chief Executive Officer must be entitled to remuneration and benefits as the top Executive of the Company for his / her service in that capacity, in addition to those received in the capacity as a Director.

Under the objectives, articles of association, resolutions and regulations of the Company, the Chief Executive Officer is authorized to manage the business of the Company in accordance with the policies, plans and budget approved by the Board of Directors. He / she is the highest-rank individual in command of all employees and staff of the Company.

4.2 The Management Team

To ascertain efficient management, the Company has formed a management team, which is comprised of high level Executives / including, the President & Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Operating Officer, the Executive Vice President, and the Senior Vice President. They are responsible for devising strategies, reviewing and giving suggestions about policies and operational directions of the Company, and managing the Company's affairs in accordance with the policies set forth by the Board of Directors.

For an Executive of GC Group to assume a position in another company, organization, or legal entity-whether as a member of the Board of Directors, consultant, advisor or any other position-the Board of Directors has approved the following guidelines for implementation throughout the PTT Group:

- (1) In the case where the high level Executive is appointed by His Majesty the King or the cabinet, using the power set forth in the law, to a position outside PTT Group and its subsidiaries, the high level Executive must inform the Board of Directors after being appointed by His Majesty or receiving the letter of appointment by the cabinet.

- (2) In the case where the high level Executive is appointed by a government agency, state enterprise, another government-run entity, independent organization, or government-funded educational institute as a member of the Board of Directors, sub-committee member, working group member, expert, advisor, consultant, or any other position outside PTT Group and its subsidiaries, the high level Executive must inform the Board of Directors and obtain its opinion prior to assuming the position.
 - (3) In the case where the high level Executive would like to serve as a member of the Board of Directors, a sub-committee, or a working group, or as an expert, advisor, consultant, or any other position in a company or legal entity outside the scope prescribed in (2), and which does not belong to PTT Group and its subsidiaries, the high level Executive must seek approval from the Board of Directors prior to accepting the position.
 - (4) The Company's Executives, according to SEC definitions, who fall under the scope of (1), (2), or (3), should inform or seek approval from the Chief Executive Officer, whichever is applicable, prior to accepting the position.
 - (5) In the case where the high level Executive has already assumed a position described in (1), (2), or (3), or the Company's Executives, per SEC definitions, have already assumed a position described in (4), where their assumption had taken place prior to the provision of these guidelines, and where they still hold the position, they must inform the Board of Directors or the Chief Executive Officer, whichever is applicable.

5. Company Secretary

Section 89/15 of the Securities and Exchange Act (No. 4) B.E. 2551 has prescribed that the Board of Directors must appoint a Company Secretary in order to serve statutory duties in the preparation and preservation of important documents of the Company including the Directors registration, Board of Directors meeting notices and minutes, shareholders meeting notices and minutes, and annual reports. The Company Secretary retains to the reports of connected transaction from Directors and Executives, and carries out matters concerning the meetings of the Board of Directors or shareholders. Company Secretary also advises the Board of Directors on requirements and criteria for the proper functioning of the Board of Directors and the Executives. The Company Secretary conducts training / briefing on matters necessary for the functioning of newly appointed Directors; and ensures that the Company fully and correctly observes the laws, the regulations and the resolutions of the Board of Directors meetings or Annual General Meetings.

6. Leadership and Independence of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors is responsible for the determination of policies, visions, mission, directions, and strategies; and ensures that the Executives proceed in accordance with such policies. They review and opine on matters, and vote on important issues as well. Therefore, in order for the Board of Directors, under the guidance of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, to maintain leadership and independence in the making of decisions and to efficiently establish policies and govern the operation of Executives, the roles of the Chairman of the Board of Directors and the roles of the Chief Executive Officer are clearly separated. They must not be the same person.

7. Evaluation of the Performance of the Board of Directors

The Board of Directors must engage in the annual performance evaluation of their own selves, of the Board of Directors as a whole, and in a cross evaluation. This provides a framework for the audit of the Board of Directors performance, and the review of outcome, issues and obstacles having arisen from the operation in the past year. This is an opportunity to consider the dedication of Director's time to the discharge of duties, and to improve the relationship among Directors and Executives as well. The Board of Directors may request an external consultant to assist in establishing guidelines and key performance indicators of board of directors as deemed necessary and appropriate.

All the Sub Committees must engage in the annual performance evaluation of their own selves and the Committee as a whole as well. The findings of these annual evaluation are to be presented to the Board of Directors' meeting, in order to provide suggestions for improvement of the operation of the Board of Directors. A clear benchmark of performance must be set and disclosed in the annual report.

8. Remuneration of the Board of Directors and the Chief Executive Officer

8.1 Remuneration of the Board of Directors

- (1) The Nomination and Remuneration Committee establishes a clear and understandable policy and criteria for the payment of fair and reasonable remuneration to the Directors, and presents such to the Board of Directors for subsequent approval by the Annual General Meeting. The process through which the annual remuneration is determined must be transparent.
- (2) The structure and the components of remuneration must be appropriate to the duties and responsibilities assigned to the Directors. The benefits received by each Director must be fair and corresponding to the performance of the Company. They must be of the level where high-caliber Directors are attracted and retained, or comparable to the benefits of other entities of the same level in the same industry.
- (3) The Board of Directors must disclose the format, the nature and the amount of the remuneration received by each Director throughout the year, as well as the remuneration they receive from their service as Directors of Subsidiaries according to their position or duties. This is to illustrate compliance with the policy set forth in the annual report.

8.2 Remuneration of the Chief Executive Officer

- (1) The Board of Directors and the Nomination and Remuneration Committee are to jointly determine the criteria for the performance evaluation of the Chief Executive Officer.
- (2) The Board of Directors assigns the Nomination and Remuneration Committee to conduct the annual performance evaluation of the Chief Executive Officer; and to propose to the Board of Directors meeting the remuneration for the Chief Executive Officer in accordance with the findings of the evaluation. The Chairman of the Board of Directors will communicate the review findings to the Chief Executive Officer.

9. Development of the Board of Directors and Executives

The Board of Directors has established a policy for the development of Directors and Executives in order to increase their knowledge, understanding and skills which concern the business of the Company or other courses which will be beneficial to their continued discharge of duties. This is achieved through orientation, information updates and internal and external training for new Directors, existing Directors, Executives and Executives who have been appointed to serve as a Director of a company under GC Group. This covers individuals whose work involves corporate governance of the Company as well such as the Company Secretary, the Secretary to the Sub-Committees and Investor Relations Officers.

10. Succession Plan

The Board of Directors must ensure that the Company has in place a candidate nomination system for important management positions of all levels; and that the nomination of the Chief Executive Officer is consistent with the procedure established by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. The Board of Directors may request the management to provide a report on the progress of succession plan periodically.

Compliance with the Good Corporate Governance Principles in accordance with the International Standard

1. Rights of Shareholders

The Board of Directors recognizes the significance of the rights of the shareholders. They will not engage in any action which will violate or diminish the rights of the shareholders. To this end, a policy has been established and disclosed to the public through the various channels of the Company. This policy confirms that the Company supports and encourages the exercising of shareholders' rights. Such rights include basic statutory rights, the right to receive crucial information, the right to propose agendas and to nominate candidates for directorial positions, the right to submit inquiries prior to the Annual General Meeting; and the right to participate in and vote at Annual General Meetings. Requirements are in place to regularly improve and enhance such exercise of rights for the utmost benefit of the shareholders.

2. Equitable Treatment of Shareholders

In order to assure shareholders of equitable treatment of all shareholders by the Company, the Board of Directors has established a corporate governance policy to require protection of shareholders' rights and fair and also ensure equitable treatment of all shareholders. For instance, this policy requires the equal exercise of rights by major shareholders and minor shareholders at the Annual General Meeting; the equal disclosure of information; the prevention of Conflicts of Interests or the use of internal information to illegitimately benefit oneself and others; strengthen the relationship with the shareholders.

3. Responsibilities to Stakeholders

The Board of Directors has established a policy requiring consideration of statutory rights of stakeholders and the agreements they have with the Company when interacting with them. This policy is to be observed by the Board of Directors, Executives and Employees of all levels in order to ensure the proper protection of such rights and the appropriate treatment of such stakeholders. It encourages cooperation between the Company and stakeholders on the creation of wealth, financial security, business integrity, as well as the preservation of the environment, society and, sustainable development. (The details of policy / responsible practices concerning stakeholders are published in the Business Code of Conduct, Page 67).

4. Disclosure of Information and Transparency

The Board of Directors appreciates the significance of information quality and equitable, transparent and fair disclosure of information via accessible and credible channels. A policy has been established to govern the sufficient, credible and timely preparation and disclosure of information, financial and otherwise. The information being disclosed must have been prepared carefully, clearly, correctly, transparently and in a manner which allows an audit to be completed. The language used should be clear, and concise. Crucial information needs to be disclosed regularly, regardless of whether it is positive or negative, in order to maintain the confidence of shareholders and stakeholders and assure them that they are receiving information in an equitable manner as per the requirements of rules, laws and the articles of association of the Company and relevant governmental agencies. The Board of Directors may assign the Audit Committee and / or the management to act on their behalf as necessary.

5. Responsibilities of the Board of Directors

As an assurance for the shareholders and the investors, the Company, by the Board of Directors, has established visions, missions, directions, operational strategies, and supervision with an efficient performance monitoring and evaluation system in place, which is independent from the management, to review the operation of Executives in accordance with the good corporate governance principle. The areas reviewed are as follows:

5.1 Transactions with Possible Conflict of Interests

- (1) The Board of Directors has established a policy and practices concerning transactions that have, or possibly could have direct or indirect Conflict of Interests with Shareholders, Directors, Executives or Other Individuals. Connected transactions requiring shareholders approval are reviewed by the Audit Committee in order to ensure that the engagement in such transactions is fair, reasonable and in the interest of the shareholders. Further, they must ensure that the laws and the regulations of the Office of the Securities and Exchange Commission are observed (SEC).
- (2) The Board of Directors ensures compliance with the established procedures with respect to rationality and independence. There must be a transparent transaction approving the engagement in the transactions which takes into account the utmost benefit of the Company and full compliance with the regulations of the SEC.
- (3) Stakeholders are not involved in the decision-making process when engaging in such transactions. At each meeting of the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors will ask participants to observe this policy. Directors with possible Conflict of Interests need to inform the assembly of that fact and refrain from opining or voting on relevant agendas, or they may be required to leave the meeting.
- (4) The Board of Directors supervises the full disclosure of information on transactions with possible Conflict of Interests in the annual report and in the Form 56-1.

5.2 Risk Management

- (1) The Board of Directors is determined to sustainably create added value and security for the business in accordance with the good corporate governance principles. To this end, the Risk Management Committee is established at the level of the Board of Directors to establish risk management policy and to implement an efficient risk management system in order to control the key risks of the Company at the acceptable level.

- (2) The Board of Directors ensures corporate-wide compliance with the risk management framework, advises on the management of key risks, reviews risk management reports and monitors key risks in order to ensure that the management of such risks is sufficient and appropriate.

5.3 Internal Control and Audit Systems

- (1) The Board of Directors realizes the significance of the internal control system and has arranged for its implementation in order to provide reasonable assurance of operational efficiency, financial report credibility and compliance with regulations and policies, as well as anti-corruption guidance. An Internal Audit Department is set up with independence in their discharge of duties. They are responsible for the sufficiency and efficiency of the internal control system for the various activities of the Company and report to the Audit Committee and the Board of Directors respectively.
- (2) The Board of Directors annually reviews the suitability and adequacy of all five components of the internal control system: Control Environment, Risk Assessment, Control Activities, Information and Communication, and Monitoring. This is to ensure achievement of the Company's objectives and goals; and to consistently improve the internal control system.
- (3) The Board of Directors provides for an official and transparent system through which the relationship between external and internal auditors can be maintained. The Audit Committee serves as the connection point between the two parties.
- (4) The auditor must confirm his / her independence to the Audit Committee annually, as well as report to them on the procedures used at his / her audit office, in order to provide assurance of his / her independence.

- (5) The auditor has the right to review reports or other financial reports issued by the Board of Directors in conjunction with the financial statements he / she has reviewed. He / she has the right to report any anomaly in the report which does not correspond with the financial statements he / she has reviewed.
 - (6) The audit fee and other fees paid to the auditor are disclosed in the annual report in order to enhance the transparency and the independence of the auditor.

The Board of Directors Code of Conduct

The Board of Directors wishes to assure stakeholders that our business is conducted on the basis of transparency and moral soundness. Therefore, a code of conduct is established for the Directors to observe as a guideline for their practice in conjunction with the good corporate governance and business code of conduct policy as below:

1. Directors must be good representatives of all groups of shareholders. They should manage the business to the fullest of their ability in order to consistently deliver suitable returns, with consideration of the utmost benefit of the Company and sustainable growth.
2. Directors must comply with the relevant laws and requirements, the Company's articles of association and resolutions of the Annual General Meeting.
3. Directors must manage the business with care and honesty. Directors must be strictly neutral and independent and not political in their decisions. They must not create obligations which may subsequently contradict their discharge of duties.
4. Directors must give Executives the authority to fully manage day-to-day operations without unnecessarily leading them.
5. Directors should not have connected transaction or interests in businesses which are directly or indirectly related to those of the Company or a Subsidiary, or in a business which is competitive to those of the Company or a Subsidiary. In the case where a Director or an affiliated entity of the Director has interests that concern the Company or a Subsidiary, such interests must be reported as required by statute.

6. Directors must avoid Conflict of Interests with those of the Company in order to ensure full and efficient management of the business.
 7. Directors must not directly or indirectly seek, from their discharge of duties, illegitimate benefits for themselves or affiliated entities.
 8. Directors must not engage in any act which may diminish the benefits to the Company or which may benefit other individuals or juristic persons.
 9. Directors must be determined to prevent and eliminate all fraudulent acts. This is a matter requiring swift and decisive countermeasures which will create positive value and image for the Company.
 10. Directors must observe and act in accordance with the good corporate governance principles and apply them to their discharge of duties. They must be leaders where morals are concerned and role models in the compliance with the good corporate governance policy and business code of conduct of GC Group.

In addition, Directors who intentionally violate or fail to comply with The Board of Directors Code of Conduct or the Anti-Corruption Policy and Guidance may be punished by the Board of Directors depending on his / her nature of the offense and its consequences.

Business Code of Conduct and Compliance with Business Ethics

GC Group is determined to conduct our business in accordance with the good corporate governance principles, and to improve our organization in terms of efficiency through transparent and fair operation, as well as by improving responsibility to shareholders and stakeholders. This includes customers, business partners, business competitors, creditors, public sector, employees, communities, society and the environment as a whole.

Therefore, our business code of conduct are a compilation of good practices on various matters. This serves as a code of standard conduct within the framework of ethics, morals and honesty. All personnel at all levels of GC Group are required to acknowledge, understand and observe such with the strictest adherence. This is not a voluntary practice. Personnel are not permitted to claim that they are not aware of this.

Any violation of this code of conduct, provided that a confirmation can be produced from an investigation, will result in disciplinary action pursuant to the Company's policy and / or legal action pursuant to relevant laws. The intent of this code of conduct is to achieve the visions established and to reflect the value and the culture of GC Group as a sustainably growing organization.

It is deemed a duty of the superiors to ensure that their sub-ordinates acknowledge, understand and proceed in strict accordance with these business code of conduct, and to provide relevant advice. Further, in the case where a question or an issue arises concerning a decision to be made or a practice for which no conduct is prescribed in the code of conduct, the individual involved should use his / her initial discretion and question the action as follows:

action illegal?

Is such action against the policy and the organizational culture of our
GC Group?

Will such action be deemed acceptable and can it be disclosed to the public?

Will such action defame or tarnish the image of our
GC Group?

Will such action result in serious damages to the Stakeholders of
GC Group?

Alternatively, the individual may inquire with his / her supervisor at the level immediately above him / her and further up the chain in the order of superiority, or inquire directly with the department responsible for such matter, the Internal Audit Department, the Human Resource Department, or the Corporate Governance and Corporate Secretary Department of PTT Global Chemical Public Company Limited.

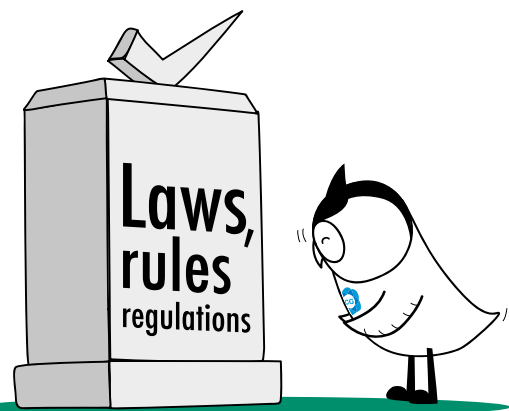

Business Code of Conduct

GC Group

1 Observance of Relevant Laws, Rules and Regulations and Respect of Cultural Differences

GC Group is concerned about the observance of relevant laws, rules and regulations and respect of cultural differences where GC Group has presence. Therefore, the employees of GC Group should abide by them and proceed in accordance with the good practices listed below:

Good practices

- 1 Comply with orders, announcements and regulations issued by GC Group.
- 2 Comply with criteria, requirements and rules of relevant agencies and enforce them upon GC Group.
- 3 Acknowledge and understand the duty and responsibility of observance of the laws and regulations relating to the discharge of duties.
- 4 Review compliance with relevant laws, rules and regulations. Cooperate, promote and ensure regular observance.

- 5 Study, understand and comply with the laws, rules and regulations of the countries in which the Company invests or operates a business. All Employees are advised to respect the good traditions and cultures of such locality as well. If the rules, regulations, work procedures, traditions and cultures of such locality are found to differ from the practices of GC Group; Employees are advised to consult the relevant authorities before commencing any action.

2 Anti-Corruption Measures

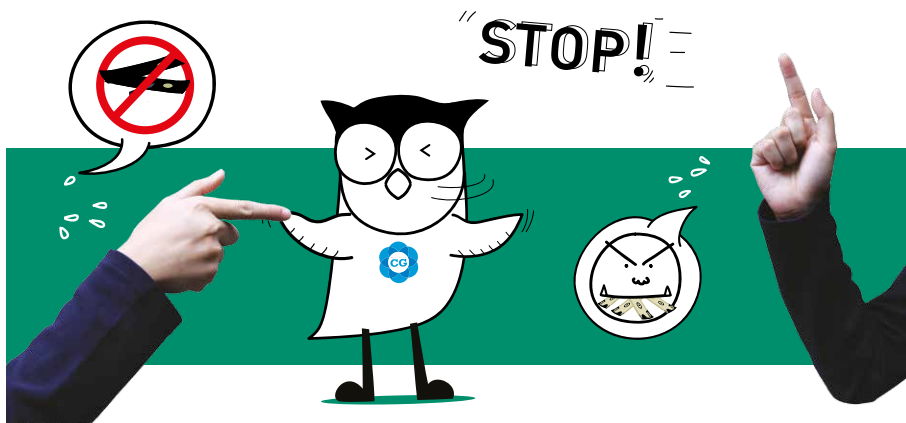

GC Group encourages personnel at all levels to become aware of the need to adopt an anti-corruption stance. Internal control systems are in place to prevent corruption, extortion and the giving or receiving of bribes in all forms, which may lead to acts of corruption and money laundering of any kind. This is to protect the Company from being used as a channel or tool to embezzle, transfer or conceal illegal sources of assets. Personnel at all levels of the Company and its subsidiaries must therefore perform their duties prudently.

The Company has provided anti-corruption guidance, which can be viewed on Page 86.

3 Connected Transaction and Conflict of Interests

GC Group operates while taking into account the benefits of GC Group and the Stakeholders. Therefore, good practices have been established to emphasize our desire to operate in a transparent and auditable manner. Directors, Executives and Employees at all levels as well as affiliated entities and related parties must avoid involvement in any such action that could result in a conflict of interests, which may result in loss of benefits on the part of GC Group or in a loss of operational efficiency. In the case where it is impossible to avoid such transaction, a responsible department will oversee that transaction to ensure transparency, clarity and ensure utmost benefit to GC Group.

In the case where any transaction meets the criteria for a connected transaction in accordance with the announcement of the Stock Exchange of Thailand, GC Group must strictly comply with the criteria and the procedure prescribed therein.

Below is the guideline that the Company has prescribed for the engagement in any duty or activity where connected transaction or conflict of interests with GC Group:

Good practices

- 1 Avoid any action which will result in interests for oneself or Conflict of Interests with GC Group, regardless of whether it arises out of dealing with an affiliated entity of GC Group; or from the use of opportunities or information one receives in the capacity as an employee to gain personal interests, to engage in a business which is competitive with GC Group or to engage in any work outside of GC Group which results in impact on the discharge of duties.

2 In the case where it is necessary for an employee of GC Group or an affiliated entity to enter into a transaction with GC Group for the benefit of GC Group, that transaction must be treated as if it is a transaction with a third party, using general trading conditions as if the transaction is one with a typical partner.

3 The procedures by which Connected, Related Transactions or Conflict of Interests are reviewed and disclosed must strictly and carefully comply with the laws and the criteria of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Stock Exchange of Thailand. Directors, Executives and / or Employees who have interests or are involved in the matter must not sit in on the review. In the case where it is necessary for such person to provide clarification or information to support the review, he / she must refrain from voting or opining on the approval to engage in such transaction in order to ensure the independence of the review.

4 Business transactions must be carried out on the basis of honesty, rationality and independence, within the ethical framework and with the utmost benefit of GC Group in mind.

5 In the case where Conflict of Interests with GC Group is suspected in an action or a circumstance or reported by a third party, a written report must be prepared to disclose such a questionable transaction using the specified form (Appendix, Page 120). The supervisor at the level immediately above and further up the chain in the order of superiority must be notified immediately, as well as the Corporate Governance and Corporate Secretary Department of PTT Global Chemical Public Company Limited. This is in order to initiate a review process to determine if there is in fact a Conflict of Interests with GC Group and what further action should be taken.

Additionally, the Company values reporting, whether there be an event that may lead to conflict of interest or not, and has made reporting an annual requirement that builds trust among shareholders and investors. It also serves as proof of transparency of our business operations.

4 Use of Internal Information and Safeguarding of Confidential Information

PTT Global Chemical Public Company Limited is a listed company in the Stock Exchange of Thailand. Therefore, a key policy established is the equitable treatment of shareholders. Therefore, procedures must be in place to ensure the utmost benefit of GC Group, and that the procurement is fair, reasonable, transparent, auditable and explicable. Furthermore, significance must be ascribed to accommodating business partners and develop a positive relationship with them on the basis of mutual respect and trust.

Good practices

1 Procure products and services while ensuring the utmost benefit to GC Group, as well as the requirements, the value for money, the quality, the price, the quantity, the time, the service and the timeliness. The procurement process must be transparent. All business partners must be provided with the same correct, clear and complete information. The disclosure process must be open, free of prejudice or selective treatment and promote fair competition among the business partners. This procurement process must be systemic and technically valid. It must be thorough and reflective of the changing trading situations.

2 The department responsible for procurement should prepare an advance procurement plan and a good management system so as to avoid emergency procurement with no justifiable reasons.

3 Must not take advantage of the business partners and must consider the benefits and the possible damage to the reputation and the image of GC Group as seen by third parties. Any negotiation must be on the basis of a business relationship and fair to both parties. The negotiation must be disclose and able to be audited.

4 Maintain an equitable business relationship with the business partners. Must not demand or accept any asset or any other benefit directly or indirectly from the business partners. Be open to opinions or any suggestion or complaint by the business partners in order to correct problems arising from the operation.

5 The invitation to quote a price must contain correct, clear and complete information for all business partners. The methodology used must ensure that all business partners are treated equitably in order to ensure fair competition. Any information received from each seller or bidder must be kept confidential and not disclosed to the other sellers or bidders. Documents pertaining to negotiation, drafting and preparation of contracts and the compliance to the contract must be kept as evidence for the specified period of time.

6 Encourage the procurement of supplies and services offered by Thai operators or the Company within the Group, or the Subsidiaries or Affiliates Group and the equitable treatment of all stakeholders.

7 Procurement of supplies and services from entrepreneurs complying with the laws, human rights and not using illegal labor should be encouraged. This should take into account the quality, safety, occupational hygiene and environment policy of GC Group. Business Partners must arrange for their employees to work in a safe working environment. They must have respect for the basic social rights of the employees, conduct their businesses in accordance with the code of conduct, strictly comply with the laws and shall not offer bribes to the private or public sector in any shape or form.

8 Executives in charge of procurement must ensure and verify that employees carrying out the procurement strictly comply with the business code of conduct and the ethics of the department. In the case where an unethical practice is detected, an investigation must be launched and disciplinary penalties must be considered in accordance with the established procedure. Executives must use discretion when giving consultation and advice and when listening to the opinions of their subordinates as well.

8 Intellectual Property and the Use of Information Technology and Communication

Intellectual property, information technology and communication are key factors contributing to the conduct of business and to operational efficiency. Therefore, it is the shared responsibility of all employees to respect the rights of owners of intellectual property and to carefully use information technology and communication within the requirements of the laws, the announcements and the standards specified by GC Group.

Good practices

1 GC Group encourages its employees to make use of their own intellect and hard work to innovate, invent or research and develop original products without infringing upon another entity's invention or research and development work or intellectual property. The Company also encourages its employees to conduct research, write textbooks and make creative media in the pursuit of knowledge. The compensation from such work is a right of the employees. Nevertheless, for any work assigned by GC Group or any work developed using information that belongs to GC Group, the right to the research, the registration of patents, the ownership of patents and the compensation from such work will belong to GC Group.

2 When intellectual property of a work, invention or research and development project is created during a period of employment or within the scope of duties and responsibilities of an employee, or from the use of Company equipment or capital or resources, an employee is obliged to prepare a report and required documents to disclose its existence in a timely manner to the Company's personnel charged with intellectual property supervision, who will determine which form of intellectual property protection is needed for the utmost benefit to the Company. This piece of intellectual property and all related rights belong solely to the Company unless otherwise agreed. Such employee is required to comply with all the rules, regulations and policies regarding the transfer of all intellectual property rights to the Company.

3 Employees must respect and not directly or indirectly violate another person's intellectual property rights or act in any manner that could be perceived as a violation.

4 In the event that an employee discovers a violation of the Company's intellectual property rights, they have a duty to report it to his or her supervisor or the personnel in charge of intellectual property supervision.

5 Employees must stringently adhere to the rules and regulations in effect when they access intellectual property research and development facilities or a venue in which rules and regulations for the protection of intellectual property rights apply.

6 GC Group has implemented safety management for the information system which includes computer systems and computer data in accordance with international standards. Therefore, it is the responsibility of every employee to protect and ensure that the section of the information system of GC Group under their possession or care is free of unauthorized access. Information crucial to the conduct of business must not be disclosed to third parties.

7 Employees must be disciplined in their use of the information system and communication equipment of GC Group in order to ensure that no negative effect is caused to GC Group and third parties. They must not use them as a tool to illegitimately gain access to information systems; cause damage to the reputation and the property; cause disturbance to the functioning of the information system; intercept information; decipher passwords; disseminate images, messages or audio which is morally or traditionally inappropriate; or for personal business or any illegal act.

8 Employees must refrain from violation of copyrights, software or intellectual property of the Company and GC Group or other parties, including but not limited to software, copyrights, patent, filed-specific knowledge and trademarks. Using, copying, modifying, disclosing or publishing such work or information to the public whether in whole or in part, unless legally authorized by its owner, are prohibited. If there are any questions regarding this matter, please consult the Legal Department or responsible authorities who are in charge of intellectual property.

9 Legally registered trademarks and brands of the Company or GC Group must be utilized with due care and due regard to its suitability for best interest of the Company or GC Group.

10 Employees must keep their password confidential and not share it with others in order to prevent unauthorized access. Employees must not access websites they are not familiar with or ones which are without data safety measures and may be dangerous to the computer systems of GC Group.

11 In the case where the employees seek permission for supplementary staff or employees of the contractors to use the information system of GC Group, the employees seeking such permission must control the use of system by the supplementary staff or employees of the contractors; and be responsible for any damage occurred.

- 12 In the case where any employee is suspected to have used the information technology system inappropriately or in the case where there is a reasonable cause to ensure the safety of the information technology system of GC Group, an assigned department will inspect, search, monitor, investigate, and control the use of information technology system of such employee.

- 3 Employees must not accuse or engage in any act which may lead to the disunity or the damage within GC Group or to affiliated entities of GC Group.

4 Maintain and promote unity among employees. Assist one another in legitimate ways for the overall benefit of GC Group.

5 Treat colleagues with politeness, kindness and good human relationship. Do not withhold crucial information for the discharge of duties of colleagues. Adapt to working with others. Respect them and not claim other's work as one's own.

6 Be determined to be a good person and to excel by acquiring new knowledge and experience to further enhance one's ability to work and to serve oneself and GC Group. Share what one knows with colleagues in order to enhance the knowledge, the skills and the capability of the employees. Create a knowledge base which is a success factor of GC Group.

7 Adhere to the principles of morals and ethics. Stay free of all vices. Employees must not behave in ways which may tarnish the reputation of oneself or that of GC Group.

8 Do not behave in an aggressive or threatening manner. Do not attempt to embarrass others or instigate fear or create a disheartening or disruptive environment. In addition, such manner in question includes sexual assaults, indecent assaults, and unconsented verbal or physical sexual advances, including flirtatious attempts, which can be perceived as an intent to violate a person's dignity or right to privacy or as a nuisance or as threatening one's safety, as well as any action that infringes upon another person's legal rights.

9 Do not conceal faults or any action which may be fraudulent or lead to offenses. Inform the supervisor of the level immediately above him / her and further up the chain in the order of superiority or the Internal Audit Department or the Audit Committee or report through Whistleblower Channel in the case where any possibly fraudulent action or misconduct is discovered within GC Group in order that preventive and corrective measures can be implemented.

10 Engage in any action which will maintain the positive working environment and ambiance, and elevate the organization towards excellence.

11 Permission must first be given by a supervisor prior to assumption of a position at a professional institute or public service organization.

12 Employees must not seek illegitimate benefits from their position or the reputation of the GC Group.

13 Employees must not engage in a business or allow their family members to engage in a business which is competitive to GC Group.

14 Protect the interests of GC Group and use assets of GC Group in a justified and conservative manner. Employees must not use assets of GC Group to gain personal benefit.

15 Regularly review and improve work processes for consistently higher efficiency.

16 Employees must not use a name or a logo of GC Group without permission to seek benefits or to attract the attention or other services which may be damaging to the image of GC Group.

17 Employees must not create a financial obligation with parties which are engaged in business with GC Group which may lead to impair decision making and working ability.

18 Employees must recognize the principle of generally accepted human rights.

Recognition of International Human Rights

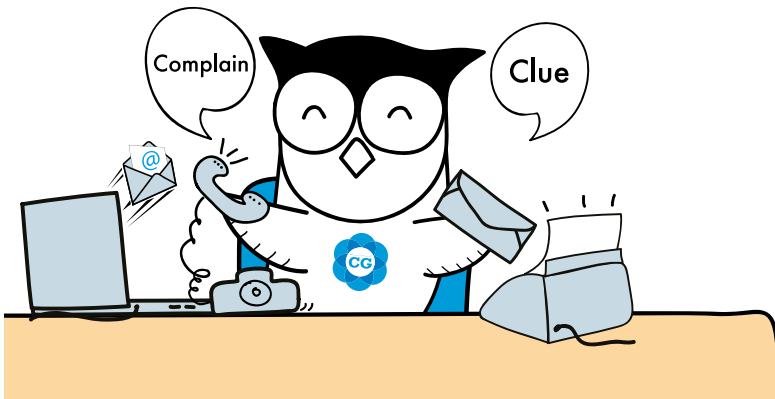

GC Group supports and recognizes human rights principles both at the national and the international levels by establishing a Human Rights Policy in writing. Great significance has been placed on the equitable treatment of all Employees, regardless of birthplace, nationality, gender, age, color of skin, religion or any disability unrelated to their performance. GC Group regularly reviews business operations while emphasizing joint-operators in this regard, to ensure that our businesses are not involved in any violation of human rights and exploitation of illegal labor.  10. Arrange for regular tests and emergency drills and improve upon those.
 11. Provide for appropriate and sufficient resources for security management operation.

14 Fair Competition

Policy

GC Group has determined to conduct business in line with Antitrust Law or Competition Law while supporting both fair and free trade with no favoritism or unfairness. Adherence to and compliance with Antitrust Law or Competition laws, in Thailand and in whichever country, are regarded as a key business principle of the Company. This includes adherence to law, rules and any relevant regulations regarding such law. Therefore, GC Group must operate its business with due care and in line with any established guideline of the Company.

Good practices

- 1 An enterprise that holds a dominant market position, as defined by the law of each country, must refrain from any action that may be considered an abuse of the dominant position.
- 2 Before proceeding any merger control that may create a monopoly competition such as monopolistic mergers, assets acquisitions, stock acquisitions, takeovers, cross investments, joint ventures and interlocking directorate, the Company must have a team of legal consultants or experts of Competition Law to examine all relevant legal procedures.

3 Do not enter into any business agreement that could monopolize or reduce or limit the business competition (Hardcore cartel or Non Hardcore Cartel).

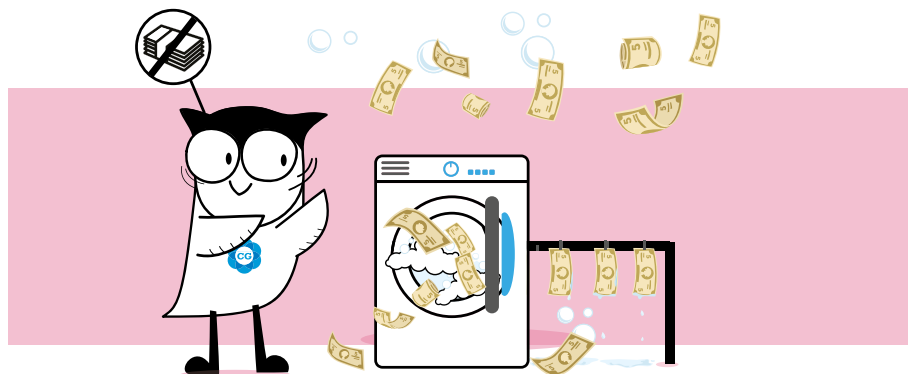

4 Unfair trade practices are prohibited even if the Company does not hold a dominant market position.

5 Do not enter into any agreement with another operator, whether domestic or international, that could limit competition and have a major impact on the economy and consumers.

15 Prevention of Money Laundering and Terrorist Financing

Policy

GC Group has determined to prevent itself at all times from falling into any cycle of money laundering or the financing of terrorism. This is achieved by establishing a set of clear policies and guidelines for GC Group to follow when conducting business. GC Group places great importance on the stringent monitoring and reporting to responsible authorities any sign of misconduct or unlawful acts. And at the same time, accurate accounts and records of all transactions, financial facts and assets, are to be professionally and properly maintained as stipulated by applicable national and international laws.

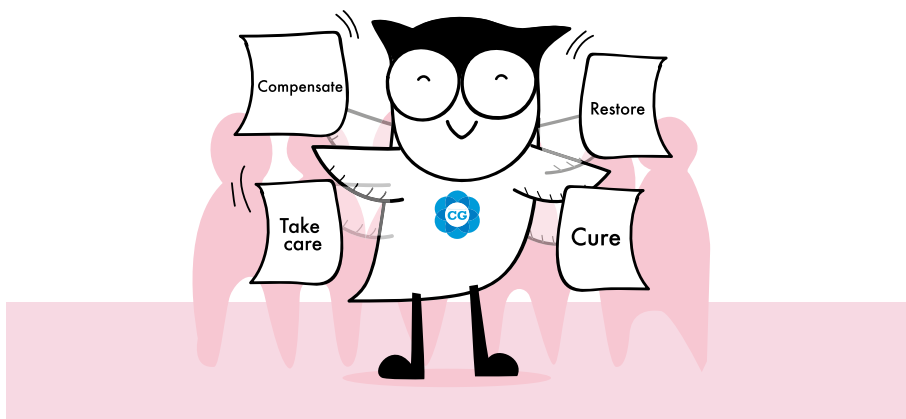

Good practices

- 1 Before engaging in business, executives and employees are to be reminded to obtain fundamental facts regarding the customers or trading partners they are dealing with. Such facts include basic business information like people who are directors and the person with authorised signatories; major shareholders directly holding at least 30% of shares or any other percentage as stipulated in relevant laws, rules and regulations; their business objectives, as well as, business relationships with GC Group. Such information can be obtained simply by checking with readily available government documents or those issued by trustworthy independent organizations. Following these guidelines is an easy yet efficient way to prevent GC Group from being used as an intermediary in money laundering or terrorism financing.
- 2 Fully co-operate with relevant agencies in complying with regulatory as well as national and international measures to prevent and suppress money laundering and combat terrorism financing.
- 3 Refrain from any acts aimed at concealing or covering up any unlawful conditions in order to make them appear legal. Such conditions include the acquisition of any location, distribution right, transfer right, or any other rights which involve illegal activities according to the Anti-Money Laundering and Combating the Financing of Terrorism (AML/CFT). Also, any behavior that supports the aforementioned acts must be avoided.
- 4 Caution must be taken when completing a transaction with any person or juristic person suspected of violating the laws on money laundering and terrorism financing. Such violations are, for example, offenses relating to drugs and sexuality (such as trafficking in women and children and female prostitution); public fraud; embezzlement and business fraud in financial institutions; malfeasance; any act of extortion, blackmail or any similar illegal wrongdoing; customs evasion according to customs law; terrorism offences according to the Criminal Code; gambling offences (only when charged for hosting or facilitating gambling activities); election fraud; and, human trafficking.

5 Verify the customer's account information directly with the financial institution to ensure that the customer is in fact the beneficial owner of the account without the use of fake names, aliases, or falsified documents to conceal relations to terrorist groups, drug trafficking or any other illegal activities. There should be a customer screening process that uses fundamental information, such as country group of origin, international measures and main sources of income, to rank customers according to their level of risk. There should also be a process to review and update a list of customers for the benefit of business planning.

16 Guideline for the Compensation of Stakeholders affected by Violation of Rights

GC Group maintains guidelines for the protection of the rights of stakeholders who are affected by the violation of their rights by the conduct of business of GC Group. Compensation of an amount not lower than that required by the laws will be considered.

2. Perform their duties transparently. Do not act in any way that indicates an intent of corruption, including giving or taking bribes to and from stakeholders of GC Group. This includes any act through the work function of personnel carried out under their responsibilities, either directly or indirectly, in order to gain benefits to the organization, employees or involving persons. Accept that his / her work performance would be reviewed regularly by a person in charge of auditing or any relevant department.

3. Do not neglect or ignore if you witness any acts deemed potential for corruption in relation to affairs of the Company and any of its subsidiaries. It is the duty of all employees to report such a matter to their supervisors or responsible authorities or through the whistleblower channel, and fully cooperate in any investigation.
 4. For any operations that are prone to corruption, personnel at all levels of GC and its subsidiaries are required to perform in the following instances with utmost caution:
 - 4.1 The offering and accepting of gifts as well as any kind of entertainment or other related expense that needs to adhere to the good practice stipulated in the Corporate Governance and the Business Code of Conduct Handbook.
 - 4.2 A monetary donation may be made only on behalf of the Company or any of its subsidiaries to trustworthy and certified organizations whose purpose is to benefit society. The said donation must be made transparently and legally through the established procedure of the Company. It must also be monitored and traced to ensure that said donation will not be used as excuses for bribery.
 - 4.3 A sponsorship for any activity or project, in form of money, items or assets, may be provided only in the name of the Company or any of its subsidiaries. The said sponsorship must promote the business or good reputation of the Company or any of its subsidiaries. Transparency must be ensured by adhering to the Company's established procedure and legal provisions.
 - 4.4 Any business relation or procurement procedure of the Company or any of its subsidiaries with public or private agencies, including any contact with state or private officers or business-related persons, whether in Thailand or overseas, must be carried out in a transparent and honest manner in accordance with relevant laws.
 - 4.5 A neutral political policy of GC allows each member of staff to have political rights and freedoms according to the law. However, they must realize that they are not to perform or carry out any political activities or exploit the resources of GC or its subsidiaries in any political activities, which could cause GC Group to lose its neutrality or sustain liability from such involvement or provision of political support.

Measures and Operational Guidelines for the Company

1. GC Group will support and encourage all levels of its personnel, as well as any party involved in its business, to realize the importance of the fight against corruption and raise their awareness in this respect. GC Group has implemented effective internal controls to prevent all forms of fraud, corruption and bribery in every country in which GC Group has invested.
2. The Anti-Corruption Guidance also covers Human Resources procedures, from the recruitment and selection process to the promotion, training, performance appraisal and compensation offered to employees. Supervisors at all levels have a duty to communicate with their subordinates to make them understand and adopt these guidelines in all business activities under their responsibility. The supervisors are also to control and ensure their operational efficiency in compliance with these guidelines.
3. GC will afford fairness and protection to its employees or those who make a complaint or provide evidence of an instance of corruption involving the Company and its subsidiaries as well as employees who refuse to cooperate with corruption offenders. The informant and any party cooperating in reporting any corruption will be protected under the Whistleblower Policy.
4. Wrongdoers of corruption are regarded as those violating employment regulations with regard to personnel management. These wrongdoers will be subject to disciplinary action as well as legal punishment if the offense is also against the law.
5. GC will constantly review this guidance and operational measures to ensure their compliance with changes in laws as well as changing situations of our business operations.
